in early 2021 with the theme of "Your Home, Your Way". She also talked about the lifestyle encouraged by the exhibition, providing the guests with inspiration and knowledge about "Home". Lecturer Mr Robin Wu, CEO of Van der Rohe Furniture, further discussed "from the life of art to the art of life" based on the theme of "getting better with a well-furnished home". He also demonstrated at the venue various crafted furniture models from Van der Rohe Furniture, bringing an immersive art experience to the guests present. The event featured a not-to-be-missed highlight: the perfumery workshop organised by lecturer Mr Albert Huang, Brand and PR Director of CULTI MILANO China. He shared with the guests the current popular home fragrance lifestyle and guided the guests through the art of creating exclusive perfumes for home. Finally, the guests held a round-table discussion on the art of living, and explored the new contemporary chic lifestyle together.

Mr Michael Ganster, General Manager of Niccolo Chengdu, joined the event on behalf of the hotel, saying: "It is a great pleasure to co-host the Niccolo Lectures event with CULTI MILANO, Home Z and Van der Rohe Furniture. We thank all the invited guests. What the home looks like reflects your lifestyle and attitude towards life. Home not only takes up space, but also epitomises a contemporary chic lifestyle shaped by architecture, fashion, art, and design. The outcome has definitely served the purpose of the event. I hope all of you will experience what Niccolo Chengdu has to offer both within the hotel and beyond." Niccolo Chengdu will continue to provide the floor for entrepreneurs, lifestyle and business innovators, designers, artists and celebrities to share their unique insights and remarkable life journeys.
